

English- speaking countries

The world of English- speaking countries is interesting, various and amazing.

There are a lot of outstanding writers and poets. The culture of the countries is fascinating. People can proud of a great number of achievements in different fields of life. Tourists are admired by a unique nature and landscapes of English-speaking countries.

And of course English language is the great language.

Capitals of English-speaking countries

London\Great Britain

Canberra\Australia

Washington DC, the USA

Wellington\New Zealand

Ottawa\Canada

